

BLACKBOX YOUTH

NEW PERSPECTIVES ON EAST-EUROPEAN YOUTH CULTURES

Conference: 02.11.2012-04.11.2012

PROGRAM

Friday, November 2nd

09:30-10:00	Opening: Matthias Schwartz, Heike Winkel (Berlin)
Section 1:	The Redefinition of the Political (Moderation: Heike Winkel)
10:00-11:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Keynote Speaker: Ken Roberts (Liverpool): Youth Cultures and the Formation of a New Political Generation in Eastern Europe
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-13:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Félix Krawatzek (Oxford): Youth Mobilisation in its Relation to Politics. Comparing Perestroika and the Putin / Medvedev Era Anna Zhelnina (St. Petersburg): "Young Politics"? The Emergence of the Social Network of Young Politicians in St. Petersburg, Russia Tom Junes (Vienna): No More Politics? 1989 and the End of the 'Classical' Student Movement in Poland
13:30-15:00	Lunch break
Section 2:	The Revision of the Social I: New Types of Belonging (Moderation: Stefan Kirmse)
15:00-17:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Herwig Reiter, Christine Steiner (Berlin): Two Different Countries, two Different Pathways to Capitalism – one New Youth? Maciej Bernasiewicz (Katowice): Worldview Discourses in Polish Magazines for Young People and Hip-Hop Music Vlad Strukov (Leeds): 'Optimistic' Youth: Media Environment, Politics of Space and Construction of Identity
17:00-17:30	Coffee break
	The Revision of the Social II: New Media Techniques (Moderation: Tom Junes)
17:30-19:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Patryk Wasiak (Wassenaar): 'Video-Fans' and Computer Bosses'. Consumer Electronics ad Youth Identities in the Late State-socialist Poland Sabina-Adina Luca, Bogdan Gheorghita and Dragos Dragoman (Sibiu): Young People in Romania. How 'New Media' Shape Social Communication and Political Activism

Saturday, November 3rd

Section 3:	Rethinking Youth I: Beyond Generation (Moderation: José Alaniz)
10:00-11:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Keynote Speaker: Hilary Pilkington (Manchester): Punk – but not as we know it: Rethinking Youth Culture from a Post-socialist Perspective
11:00-12:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Stefan B. Kirmse (Berlin): How far does 'Eastern Europe' go? Experiences of Youth in Central Asia Alfrun Kliems (Leipzig/Berlin): Old young men. Popculture and its Aging Protagonists
12:30-14:00	Lunch break
	Rethinking Youth II: Post-Socialist Subjectivities (Moderation: Hilary Pilkington)
14:00-16:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Gleb Tsipursky (Newark, Ohio): Youth Communal Policing: Public Discourse and Volunteer Militias in Post-Soviet Russia José Alaniz (Seattle): Colorful Pictures: 'Respect' Comics and Russian Youth Matthias Schwartz (Berlin): Everything Feels Bad: Figurations of the Self in Young Post-Socialist Literature
16:00-16:30	Coffee break
Section 4:	The Transformation of the Imaginary I: Constructing Identity Patterns (Moderation: Matteo Colombi, GWZO Leipzig)
16:30-18:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Yaryna Borenko (Lviv): Concepts of Patriotism within Education and Youth Policies in Ukraine Jovana Papović, Astrea Pejović (Belgrade): Nationalist Iconography of the Nineties in Contemporary Youth Discourse in Serbia Robert Pruszczyński (Warschau): Masculinity without a Rebel, a Rebel without a Masculinity. Polish Cinema, Youths and National Stereotypes (Żamojda, Żuławski)

Sunday, November 4th

Section 4:	The Transformation of the Imaginary II: Appropriating and Subverting Identity Patterns (Moderation: Matthias Schwartz)
10:00-11:20	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Catriona Kelly (Oxford): The End of Childhood and/or the Discovery of the Tineidzher? Reflections on Age Boundaries and Boundaries in Chronology• Matthias Meindl (Zürich): The Fight of/for the Youth: Russian Youth Movements and their Representation in Contemporary Russian Literature
11:20-11:40	Coffee break
11:40-13:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Anna Oravcová (Prague): Czech Hip-Hop Undergroud• Heike Winkel (Berlin): Loners and Gangs. Communality in Contemporary Eastern European Literature
13:00-14:00	Concluding discussion